

NOBODY SPEAKS ENGLISH, ANYMORE

I jumped in a taxicab
And said driver Central Park
He looked at me so quizzically
I could tell he was in the dark
So I acted out my park charade
And with my arms the trees I made
Nobody speaks English anymore

Went down to Miami Beach
Where the weather is nice and sunny
I walked in to a liquor store
But the guy there talked real funny
I asked him for a pint of ole Jim Beam
He says no intiendo, what does that mean?
Nobody speaks English anymore

At the corner deli, hell I think I'm in Pakistan
Speak English smelly, or you can go back to Iran

I came here many years ago
And I learned my ABC's
I don't say muchas gracias
I say pretty please
So get yourself to a classroom quick
You're in America now stop making me sick
Nobody speaks English
Nobody speaks English
Nobody speaks English anymore
